Mrs. Smith Rites In Penna. Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Virginia Smith, 94, a former resident of the Singers Glen region, and author of the genealogy, "Descendants of Samuel Miller, John Detrick and John and Mary Snell", will be held at Kingston, Pa., this afternoon. Dec. 7-1955

A number of nieces and nephews from Rockingham will attend the funeral. Mrs. Smith died Friday. She had many friends and relatives in her native county.

In the preface to her genalogy Mrs. Smith wrote a brief sketch of her life.

Mrs. Smith was the daughter of Henry and Mary Detrick Miller and was born near Greenmount, Sept. 5, 1862. Her husband, Issac Newton Smith, the son of a Confederate veteran, was a native of Augusta County and learned the shoemaker's trade under David Ermentrout, near Greenmount.

In 1802 Mr. Smith located on a homestead claim near Weston, Umatilla county, Oregon, where they lived after their marriage. Their only child, Mary Etta Smith, was born there in 1895. In 1898, they exchanged their homestead for another farm near Holman, Oregon. Mr. Smith operated a harvester outfit. Mrs. Smith's part of the operation was to cook for the crew of 12 men. She cooked in a wagon house which was moved from field to field.

For three years 1901-03, Mr. and Mrs. Smith operated a store and postoffice at Holman, Oregon, with Mrs. Smith in charge of the mail. She wrote that this was a little pioneer settlement and our customers, mostly cowboys and Indians, came from as far as 20 miles away.

In 1904, they exchanged their farm at Adams, Oregon, for a farm in Lake Township, Luzerne county, Pa. They moved there in November 1904. They went to Lima, Ohio, in 1914 when Mr. Smith's health failed. He died in Ohio in 1918.

Mrs. Smith returned to the home of her daughter in Kingston, Pa., in 1915, and lived for more than a quarter of a century as housekeeper in the home of William Brewster at Kingston.

In 1930 she returned for a visit to her old home in Oregon. She also visited friends and relatives in Iowa, California, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. She visited their first farm house at Weston, Oregon.

Mrs. Smith added in her sketch: "I have been a member of the Church of the Brethren (Dunkard) in which I was raised, all my life; and have never departed from their ways and customs. I have been in most of the states, have seen some of Canada and crossed the continent three times."

Mrs. Smith completed the genealogy when she was 82.

ELIZABETH VIRGINIA SMITH

I am the youngest daughter of Henry M. and Mary Detrick Miller and was born near Greenmount, Rockingham County, Virginia, April 5, 1862, and married Isaac Newton Smith, September 24, 1893.

He was born September 25, 1857, in Augusta County, Virginia. His father was in the Confederate Army and was one of the missing ones when the Civil War ended. His mother was left penniless, in the, then, poverty stricken and desolate Shenandoah Valley, with five small children to support, and at the age of seven years, he was bound out among strangers. At the age of eighteen, he came from Augusta County to David Ermentrout's near Greenmount where he learned the shoemaking trade.

In 1882, he went West and located a homestead claim near Weston, Umatilla County, Oregon to which place we went after our marriage. My only child, Mary Etta Smith, was born there, May 7, 1895. In 1898, we exchanged our homestead for another farm, near Holman, Oregon. During the fall we carried on the harvesting business, my part of which was to cook for the crew of twelve men, in a wagon cook house, which was moved from field to field when the wheat was cut and threshed.

The year 1899 was spent at my old home in Virginia and we then returned to Oregon. I underwent a serious operation in the Walla Walla Washington Hospital in the fall of 1900. During the years, 1901, 02 and 03, we kept a store and the post-office at Holman, Oregon and I had charge of the postoffice. This was then a little pioneer settlement and our customers, mostly cowboys and Indians, came from as far as twenty miles away.

During 1904, we lived in Adams, Oregon and having exchanged our place in that state for the Edwards farm in Lake Township, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, we removed there in November of that year.

We continued to reside on our farm in Lake Township until late in 1914, when Mr. Smith's health failed and we went to Lima, Ohio, where my brother, John F. Miller, resided; and the following year Mr. Smith's health became such that he entered the sanatorium at Gallipolis, Ohio, where he died in January 1918.

I returned to the home of my daughter in Kingston, Pa., in the fall of 1915; and since November 9, of that year have resided at the home of Mr. William Brewster, No. 252 North Sprague Avenue, Kingston, Pa., having been housekeeper there for the past twenty-eight years.

In the summer of 1930, I returned, for a visit, to my old home in Oregon; and during that trip, I visited friends and relatives in Iowa, California, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas. At Holman, where I spent over a week with Mr. and Mrs. Holman, our store building and house were gone, which was a surprise and disappointment, but most of my old neighbors were still alive, and at a party, given by my kind hosts, they gathered to see me again. Our farm house at Weston, the first home of my own, remained and there in the midst of pleasant memories, I was kindly entertained at Athena by a former neighbor, Mrs. Lillie Pittman.

I have been a member of the Church of the Brethren, (Dunkard), in which I was raised, all my life; and have never departed from their ways and customs. I have been in most of the states, have seen some of Canada, and have crossed the continent three times.

Some years ago, I began gathering the information, contained in the following pages. I have written hundred of letters of inquiry. Most of them, although not all, were kindly answered. Had all responded, the record would be more complete. I have visited the old grave-yards in Virginia, where our ancestors are buried; and have talked with the older people in Virginia and Ohio, who could give information. Many ancient records, which would have been helpful, were destroyed, when the Court House at Harrisonburg, Virginia was burned, many years ago.

To get together and arrange these family records has taken a great deal of my spare time for the past ten years and I hope some will appreciate the endeavor.

Samuel Miller, John Detrick and John Snell all lived and died in Rockingham County, Virginia. They were sturdy and substantial men, and among the early people of that region. They were my ancestors, whom I hold in grateful memory; and to their numerous descendants, scattered throughout the country, I contribute, this little genealogy, with all its shortcomings and mistakes.

This little book is now finished in the eighty-second year of my life.
